

Forgotten Land (Formerly “Nights Past Two”)

A traveller from a forgotten land
Got stuck in twenty-fifteen
Where time stops his very spirit,
Freezing his life in place

His watch stops working while
His world keeps turning
But he does not change
He remains the same.

How many years have snuck past him
And twisted his mind
By breaking his past.
Until now

As he picks up the broken pieces
And remembers his forgotten land.
